

NiteTrain Coach Restores Original Brand and Leadership Team

Tim Conner returns as Chief Executive Officer, Jonathan Thornton as President

WHITES CREEK, Tenn. – July 1, 2026 – NiteTrain Coach (“NiteTrain”), a leading luxury coach leasing company, today announced a return to its original brand and the appointment of former executives Tim Conner and Jonathan Thornton as Chief Executive Officer and President, respectively. The company previously operated as Encore Luxury Coach.

Under the pair’s leadership, NiteTrain grew into one of the largest entertainer coach operators in North America, providing artists, touring professionals, and production teams with more than 125 luxury coaches maintained and operated in-house. Together, Conner and Thornton have a combined 35 years of experience in the luxury transportation industry.

“For four decades, NiteTrain has been grounded in reliability, organization, and accountability – values that are essential for clients who move quickly and need a partner that understands their lifestyle,” said Tim Conner. “We are committed to delivering premier, on-demand support before, during, and after every trip, and I am thrilled to return to NiteTrain to drive our vision forward.”

Long trusted by entertainment’s top touring acts, NiteTrain offers artists, managers, and production teams high-quality coach leasing solutions. The transition marks a renewed focus on service standards, operational discipline, and industry relationships and a commitment to delivering world class service to NiteTrain’s valued customers, employees and other partners.

SCF CoachCo LLC, a subsidiary of Stonebriar Finance Holdings, acquired NiteTrain in 2026 and is now its sole owner.

About NiteTrain Coach

Founded in 1986 and based in Whites Creek, Tennessee, NiteTrain provides luxury entertainer coach leasing solutions, including tour bus leasing, sales, and full-service maintenance. With a fleet of more than 125 luxury coaches, in Nashville and Phoenix, NiteTrain operates throughout North America, serving clients across the entertainment industry. Learn more at <https://www.nitetrain.coach/>